Community Learning Champions (CLC's)

An exciting opportunity for you to become a Community Learning Champion, encouraging other people such as friends, colleagues, relatives or community groups to get involved in learning activities.

What is a Community Learning Champion?

- Someone with a positive learning experience to share
- Someone who can encourage and inspire others to understand the value of learning
- Someone who can support them to make a difference to their lives.

Who Can Apply?

- Anyone, regardless of age, culture or circumstances
- If you are enthusiastic about learning and can encourage others.
- If you are friendly, outgoing and non judgemental.
- You must be a good listener and be willing to talk to people, supporting them to overcome their fears and barriers to learning.

What's in it for me?

- Free training
  - £200 incentive
  - Free childcare and travel costs when acting as a CLC.
- And more.....

If you feel any of the above relates to you we would like to hear from you!!
